Amateur: Total LTE $100K or over

Amateur Intermediate: Total LTE $25,001-$99,999

Amateur Limited: Total LTE $0-$25,000

RIDER ELIGIBILITY:

A rider may compete in any division he/she qualifies for as determined by the definition of an Open, NonPro and Amateur rider in the NCHA Rule Book. The levels within each division are based on rider total lifetime earnings at the beginning of the 2022 year. There is NO distinction between Weekend and Limited Aged earnings. All earnings (example: senior, gelding, area work off, etc.) are included in a rider Total Lifetime earnings.

Revolving Door: If a rider is NOT in the top 100 money earning riders for the previous two point years in ANY division, they may drop down into the intermediate division.

Hall of Fame Riders: Open Hall of Fame riders may not enter the Intermediate division regardless of age or top 100 money earnings.

Senior Exception: Once a rider turns 70, the rider may drop down into the Intermediate division if not a HOF member.

Earning Cap: Once an Amateur has won $250K in LTE, they MUST declare Amateur or Non-Pro. Once a Non-Pro has won $250K in Open LAE & Weekend money, they MUST declare Open or Non-Pro division.

A horse may walk to the herd 2 times.
